Democrats Call for the Reorganization of the Party on the Old Lines Eliminating the False Gods of Free Silver.

NEW YORK, November 7.—McKinley and Roosevelt have been elected by the largest popular and electoral majority given any Republican Presidential ticket since 1872. Congress will be Republican by an increased majority. New York is Republican by about 150,000 and Pennsylvania by 100,000. Not only has McKinley carried all the States that were his in 1896 but has carried States in the far West. There will undoubtedly be a movement in the Democratic party to shelve Bryan and bring back the old leaders.

THE RETURNS IN DETAIL.
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The vote of all States in the Electoral College seems likely to be indicated. The last State to leave the doubtful column was Idaho, which shows a plurality of something over 1,000 for Bryan, four-fifths of the electors having made returns. This seems to be conclusive, there being a plurality of enough Republican votes in the late districts to change the complexion of the Legislature. Both parties still claim the State for President and for Governor.

COMPLEXION OF CONGRESS.
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The next House of Representatives will be Republican by a large majority. The Republicans have enough Congressmen to outvote the Democrats and all others in the House. From the present outlook the make-up of the Upper House will be: Republican, 48; Democrats, 31; all others, 11.

Thus the Republicans will continue to hold their effective working majority against the Democrats and the Independents in the Senate. The Republicans have a majority of fourteen over all opposition.

HOW MCKINLEY TOOK THE NEWS.

CANTON, Ohio, Nov. 8.—The President's first congratulations from headquarters came from J. H. Manley at New York, as follows: "Fraise God, from whom all blessings flow. Your triumphant re-election is conceded by Democratic managers. I tender my earnest congratulations. We are very happy at headquarters."
President McKinley received the elec turns tonight at his home, surrounded by a large number of his old friends and neighbors, including many ladies who came as the guests of Mrs. McKinley, to share with her the interest and excitement of this culminating event of the campaign. Direct wires connected the house with the Republican national headquarters at New York and at Chicago, with Senator Hanna at the Union Club in Cleveland and with the home of Governor Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, so that the President was in constant telegraphic touch with his associates on the ticket and with the campaign leaders.

The President made his headquarters in his library, where most of the gentlemen guests congregated, while Mrs. McKinley entertained the ladies in the parlor. The President was in his good humor, showing no signs of anxiety over the result.
The President in person read aloud some of the returns, but refrained from making any comment whatever on the result and accepted with unruffled composure the favorable reports which began to come in at an early hour. Secretary Cortelyou read most of the dispatches, some of the more cheering announcements being heartily applauded by the guests. Most of the early advices were fragmentary and inconclusive, but the strong indications that New York and probably Illinois had gone for McKinley were received with great satisfaction.
At 9 o'clock the President received a dispatch from an enthusiastic individ-
